

Council members are very interested to hear the feedback.

The information will be presented to the City Council in 2016.

Additional outreach will be conducted after the feedback is presented to the City Council which may include focus groups and several other individuals and groups.

This will go back to the City Council at the time they consider the budget which is July/August 2016.

Feedback is accepted via email to bnewton@cityoflakewood.us or
