Announcements:

- City’s Visioning Website

  o Mr. Catron announced that the Visioning Website is up and running, the link is on the City’s website. He encouraged board members to take the community survey and inform the City through the website if you know of an organization that would like a presentation from the City’s consultant/staff member as well spread the word to other Lakewood Citizens.

- Historical Markers

  o Mr. Spieth announced that historical markers were affixed on the Lakewood Ice Rink, dedicated by Mayor Don Anderson and Lakewold Gardens which is a dual marker, a designated historical property as well as being recognized with the Historical Society. He mentioned 2 other sites that are located for designation, but not complete which are the Boatman-Ainsworth on 112th Street and the Old Settler Cemetery on Washington Blvd. and is anticipated to be dedicated within the next couple of months. Two others that are mounted but not located are the Thornewood Castle and the Heath Farm at Fort Steilacoom. This totals twelve plaques that have been mounted to date with exclusion of four more in the near future, including the Little Red School House which is part of a later discussion in the meeting. He stated that there are potentially seventy or eighty sites that could be designated and marked, however purchasing the rocks are of major concern due to price, rock location and finding economically reasonable services to move and/or mount the rocks. The average is $1,500 per marker. The Board expressed thanks to Mr. Spieth for his dedication and efforts in completing the markers.

  o Mr. Harrison suggested that the Board notify the state about the location of these historical markers to be placed on the map. Mr. Spieth expressed that these locations are currently on the historical marker map and that it was difficult locating a point of contact for permission to place the markers on site. He stated that most of the markers for properties where a point of contact was difficult to contact are placed in the easement. Mr. Catron mentioned that if these markers are in the ROW that the City would need to be notified.

- Lakewold Gardens National Historic Register Application
  - Ms. Walsh announced that the Lakewold Gardens application for the National Historic Register was turned into the State on Monday, July 23, 2014. She explained that the next determination meeting forwards the application to the National Prep Service for designation is in late October. She stated that once the application has been approved for further review, it will be forwarded to the LHAB committee for approval. She informed the board of the importance of the next meeting in order to complete this application approval, but stated that she could not vote due to conflict of interest. The Board mentioned that there had not been a National Historic Register nomination for properties within the City of Lakewood since LHAB’s inception.

PUBLIC COMMUNICATIONS: None

NEW BUSINESS:

- LHAB Joint Meeting with City Council and
  - Ms. Walsh reminded the Board of the joint meeting with City Council on September 8th. All members with the exception of Beth Campbell agreed to attend this meeting in support of the LHAB work plan presentation.

- 2014 Summary & Work Plan
  - Ms. Walsh noted the 2014 Summary and Work Plan that Mr. Catron had drafted for discussion with the board in preparation of the presentation to the City Council.
  - Discussion ensued about the presentation, communicating the significance of LHAB to the community, expressing the LHAB vision with regard to importance of local historic preservation, funding markers, website presence and budget allocation (approximately $2-3k) for a consultant to assist with designations.
  - Mr. Catron made note of opportunities to update the City’s website as well as utilizing social media in order to create a stronger public outreach.
  - Additions to the Work Plan were addressed; they are to include historical map updates and the “Little Red Schoolhouse” revitalization.
  - The board divided the Work Plan talking points, Mr. Spieth would address the 2014 Summary, Ms. Walsh would address 2015 work plan and Mr. Neary would address the budget portion.

- Historical Map
  - Mr. Spieth addressed the City produced historical sites map and noting that it was not up to date. Mr. Catron mentioned that there are opportunities to update the map, Ms. Walsh concurred and added that such task could be noted on the work plan. The board made note that budget funds would be required for this update. It was discussed to keep an ongoing record of changes as to not leave off any sites from the map. Mr. Catron reiterated that having the City’s website updated could present an opportunity to be able to order a historical marker map and/or DVD. It was also questioned if the map was available via .pdf for uploading and electronic mail purposes. Mr. Catron stated that he inquire if such a file exists.

- Placement of 4-2 SBCT Shield (Donation)
  - Currently the shield resides in the City Hall basement and is 6’ wide by 8’ tall. The board discussed an additional interpretive sign describing the shield would be necessary.
  - Locations within City Hall were researched by Staff; the City Council chambers seemed to be the most logical location if placed inside.
  - Outdoor Locations suggested were as follows:
    - In front of City Hall by the Memorial
    - Ft. Steilacoom Park
    - Ft. Lewis Army Museum
UNFINISHED BUSINESS:

- Amphitheater in Ft. Steilacoom Park
  - Mr. Catron addressed the status noting that the project is not closed and different locations within the park are currently being discussed and/or rescaling of the project is also a possibility. The Parks and Recreation department will make a presentation once a concrete solution has been proposed.

- Custer School “Little Red Schoolhouse”
  - Ms. Walsh spoke with the Superintendent from Clover Park School District. Ms. Walsh mentioned that the conversation was positive, but the Superintendent was mostly concerned about safety with this aging building and the building being in the ROW for a new bus route. Mr. Catron noted that the school is on the National Register list, but not on our City’s historical register. He also mentioned that the City met with the facilities department heads of CPSD and their intention is to demo the school to create a bus lane/route. Mr. Neary suggested that a representative attend a school board meeting to make public comment on the school in recommendation of preserving this historical building. Mr. Neary suggested writing a letter to the School Board and Superintendent requesting audience with board members to discuss alternatives to demo. It was agreed by LHAB members that more information is needed and the topic was tabled to be revisited at a later meeting pending more information from Mr. Catron on the specific meeting with CPSD facilities and dates of future board meetings.

- Washington cities historical boards examples
  - The board revisited an assignment established at a previous meeting for each board member to contact and/or research other cities in Washington websites with historical boards to locate resources materials used when developing brochures or educating citizens on designating properties and the tax incentives tied to such designations.
    - Ms. Campbell researched cities F-J and was impressed with the site for the City of Gig Harbor and forms located on their site to self-nominate a property and the tax incentives tied to this designation.
    - Mr. Neary researched cities P-T and shared written information on the City of Seattle site. He was impressed with the information in regards to economic development. He made note that we could use many cities as a go-by and create our own forms.
    - Mr. Spieth did not find much information on the sites he visited in WA, but did visit the site for Astoria, OR and was impressed with the information provided. He made special note of the City ordinance deeming a property designated by a National Register was automatically recognized on the local registry.
    - Ms. Walsh researched cities U-Z and brought to the table the Cities of Zilla, Yakima and Wenatchee. She stated that the City of Zilla site was based on their history of being a “Teapot City”. Next was the site for the City of Yakima and they had clear information as well as clear forms to designate a property. Lastly, the City of Wenatchee had a great site layout and had a great/informative brochure. She noted that the City of Wenatchee held a historic preservation workshop in 2013.

Next Meeting: September 25, 2014

Meeting Adjourned: 7:44 pm

RE: Funding for Historic Preservation/ LHAB Activities

In response to the September 8, 2014, joint meeting with the City Council, staff has been assigned the task of preparing an analysis of potential LHAB funding sources for the City Manager and Council. Funding sources could include grant programs or, potentially, permit fees or surcharges assessed to permit applications.

Staff has initiated research (via the internet) regarding financial assistance programs. A list of potential grant programs compiled by the Washington State DAHP is attached. Most grant programs require applications that target a specific project or program. Staff would appreciate the Board’s input on funding opportunities, and would like to discuss funding priorities, goals, strategies, and project ideas on which to focus grant applications. Project ideas could include specific “brick and mortar” capital projects to protect or rehabilitate existing historic structures, or public information, education, and involvement projects.

Projects for protection and/or rehabilitation could include properties and structures such as the Little Red Schoolhouse, the Morgue and Bakery at Western State Hospital, or the Old Settler’s Cemetery. Public information, education, and involvement projects could include the purchase and placement of historic markers, further development of the City’s website with regard to Lakewood’s history; compilation, organization, and presentation of a photo collection; or development of an integrated arts program focusing on historical themes.

As an example of an integrated arts project, the City of Gig Harbor, in partnership with the Peninsula Art League, sponsored the 2014 Netshed Art Project, where artists focused on historic “net sheds” as subjects for art. The creation and development of art and images reflecting historical themes is extremely important in raising public consciousness of an area’s history and placing it in the context of contemporary life. A gallery featuring the artwork generated by the Netshed project is available on-line through the City of Gig Harbor website at http://www.cityofgigharbor.net/page.php?id=1761.

Successful pursuit of outside funding sources will require that the City identify, develop, and focus on specific projects and grant sources as an essential early step. The Board may wish to start thinking about finding ways to position itself in order to be competitive and successful in pursuing grant funding. Grant applications are bolstered by well-developed project ideas, securing matching funding, demonstrating community support, and establishing productive partnerships with other community organizations. Staff supports efforts to strengthen the relationships between the LHAB and other related community groups including the Lakewood Historical Society and the Lakewood Arts Commission.

Selection and development of specific project ideas should include an estimation of costs and prospects for receiving necessary financial support. Projects that do not cost a lot of money, but which are effective in communicating and show-casing the City’s history in an interesting way should be preferred. Staff is hoping that the discussion prompted here, including the identification of potential Board projects, will help staff focus on the most appropriate and realistic funding sources, strategies and priorities.

Historic County Courthouse Rehabilitation Grants
Historic County Courthouse Rehabilitation Grant Program is administered by the state Department of Archaeology & Historic Preservation (DAHP) in conjunction with the Washington Trust for Historic Preservation. In consultation with a Steering Committee, DAHP and the WA Trust have outlined a timeline and process to review, award, and monitor courthouse grant projects. - Financial need of applicant.
- Projects that assist in providing structural and life safety, including improvements to courthouse accessibility.
- Public visibility of work that addresses the historic character defining features of a courthouse.
- Degree of urgency and extent to which inaction would lead to loss of historic fabric and character defining features.
- Projects that have match in-hand at time of application or grant award.
- Projects for which plans are already developed and have demonstrated meeting the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation.
- A clearly defined scope of work that includes reasonable cost estimates and completion schedules for each work element.
- Demonstrations of a maintenance plan to provide proper stewardship for rehabilitated courthouses in general and historic character-defining features in particular.
- Percentage of requested state funding applicant intends to match with funding from other allowable sources.

Kinsman Foundation

Historic preservation is the principal funding area since the beinging of the Kinsman Foundation. The Foundation is a private foundation built on the philanthropy of John and Elizabeth T. Kinsman of Milwaukie, Oregon. In 2006 they identified our primary interest in this area as architectural preservation — the preservation, rehabilitation, restoration and reconstruction of historic buildings, structures and related sites. Most of the projects they fund involve buildings that are listed in the National Register of Historic Places, either individually or as a contributing resource in an historic district. The foundation continues to consider grants for other historic preservation activities as a secondary interest. For 2011, Historic Preservation grants are budgeted for approximately one-quarter of our total grants, about $275,000.

The Federal Historic Preservation Tax Incentives program encourages private sector rehabilitation of historic buildings and is one of the nation’s most successful and cost-effective community revitalization programs. It generates jobs and creates moderate and low-income housing in historic buildings.

The program is administered by National Park Service and the Internal Revenue Service in partnership with State Historic Preservation Offices.

Frequently Asked Questions about the Federal Tax Credit Program:

- Q: What is the 20% tax credit for rehabilitating historic buildings?
  A: One of the federal government’s most successful and cost-effective community revitalization programs, the Preservation Tax Incentives reward private investment in rehabilitating historic properties such as offices, rental housing, and retail stores. Abandoned or under-used schools, warehouses, factories, churches, retail stores, apartments, hotels, houses, and offices in many cities have been restored to life in a manner that retains their historic character. The Preservation Tax Incentives have also helped to create moderate and low-income housing in historic buildings. (source: www.nps.gov/TPS/tax-incentives/incentives/essentials_1.htm)

- Q: Can the 20% federal tax credit be used to rehabilitate an owner’s private residence?
  A: No. The 20% credit is available only to properties rehabilitated for income-producing purposes, including commercial, industrial, agricultural, rental residential or apartment use. The credit cannot be used to rehabilitate your personal residence in which you live. However, if a portion of a personal residence is used for business, such as an office or a rental apartment, in some instances the amount of rehabilitation costs spent on that portion of the residence may be eligible for the credit. (source: www.nps.gov/TPS/tax-incentives/incentives/essentials_2.htm)

- Q: To qualify for the 20% tax credit, does a building have to be individually listed in the National Register of Historic Places or included in a National Register historic district?
  A: In general, yes. However, buildings that have been determined eligible by the State Historic Preservation Office for individual listing in the National Register or that may be included in a local certified historic district or in a historic district that is potentially eligible for listing in the National Register may also qualify for the credit. In addition, the owner may obtain substantial tax benefits.

FUNDING SOURCES FOR THOSE RESTORING PRIMARY RESIDENCE

One of our most commonly asked questions concerns funding sources for those seeking to restore their primary residence. Unfortunately, the majority of grants and funding sources are only available for non-profit organizations and/or for income-producing properties (i.e. apartment buildings, commercial buildings). There are, however, some resources available for primary resident projects:

- Contact your SHPO, local CLG (certified local government commission, landmarks board, etc) and/or your local historical society(s). There may be tax incentives and other assistance available at the local, state or federal level. We maintain a directory of such organizations - please click here to do a search for your state.

- Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD):
  ○ Department of Housing and Urban Development's Federal Housing Administration (FHA) - flexible loan program that helps developers, investors, and families at all income levels to buy and restore properties in urban and rural historic districts.
  ○ HUD's Neighborhood Stabilization Grants (NSP) - established for the purpose of stabilizing communities that have suffered from foreclosures and abandonment. Through the purchase and redevelopment of foreclosed and abandoned homes and residential properties, the goal of the program is being realized.

- Department of Agriculture's Rural Housing Service - offers funds for the acquisition, construction, repair or rehabilitation of homes and apartment-style housing for low and moderate-income residents in rural areas.

- Preservation Easement Tax Incentives (PDF Document) - A preservation easement is a voluntary legal agreement that protects a significant historic, archaeological, or cultural resource. An easement provides assurance to the owner of a historic or cultural property that the property's intrinsic values will be preserved through subsequent ownership. In addition, the owner may obtain substantial tax benefits.

National Trust Preservation Funds: Guidelines & Eligibility

Grants from National Trust Preservation Funds (NTPF) are intended to encourage preservation at the local level by providing seed money for preservation projects. These grants help stimulate public discussion, enable local groups to gain the technical expertise needed for particular projects, introduce the public to preservation concepts and techniques, and encourage financial participation by the private sector. The National Trust is particularly interested in projects that relate to the preservation priorities listed below. If your project relates to any of these issues, please explain the connection in your narrative.

- Building sustainable communities: Does your project demonstrate that historic preservation supports economic, environmental and cultural sustainability in communities?
- Reimagining historic sites: Does your project use innovative, replicable strategies that create new models for historic site interpretation and stewardship?
- Promoting diversity and place: Does your project broaden the cultural diversity of historic preservation?
- Protecting historic places on public lands

A small grant at the right time can go a long way and is often the catalyst that inspires a community to take action on a preservation project. Grants generally start at $2,500 and range up to $5,000. The selection process is very competitive.

The review process is generally completed within eight weeks of the application deadline, and applicants are notified via email once the review process is complete.

Application deadlines are February 1, June 1, and October 1. If the first of the month falls on a weekend, applications will be due on the following Monday.
