Domestic Violence Related Homicide in Lakewood.

Boyfriend is suspect in death of 33 year old girlfriend victim.

Lakewood, WA. November 13, 2013:

On November 13th, 2013 at approximately 4:03 AM, a frantic male called 911 to report that his girlfriend was unresponsive and needed medical aid. The male called from an apartment at the Pacific Walk Townhomes located at the 8300 block of 31st Avenue South. WPFR responded and requested police because of a suspicious scene and circumstances. Patrol officers arrived on scene and the 33 year old female victim was pronounced deceased. The 32 year old male boyfriend was detained and brought back to the police station for an interview.

Detectives are processing the scene and interviewing the suspect boyfriend. Notifications of next of kin are being conducted and the identity of the victim and/or suspect will not occur until all notifications have been made.

As soon as more information becomes available, an update will be sent out by this office.
